Devan-Newman.

At noon yesterday at the home of the bride in this city, Rev. T. C. Adford officiated at the ceremony of marriage whereby the lives of J. Newman and Miss Audry Devan were joined together for wedlock for all time. Only the immediate families of the contracting parties were present and immediate relatives were present and immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Newman boarded the S. A. L. train for a short trip to Dawson, Ga., the home of Mr. Newman. The marriage of these popular young people came as a genuine surprise just at this time. So carefully they guarded the date that few of the families knew of the wedding. Mr. Newman is a jolly, good natured fellow, since coming here about a year ago, has made lots of friends and his courtesy and ever present humor. He holds the responsible position of manager of the Electric Power Co. His charming bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. N. Newman and a most lovable and devoted young lady. May all happiness and good fortune attend them in their married life.

Cotton Growers Association.

A well attended meeting of the cotton growers association was held in the court house last Saturday at which Capt. Theo. Randell presided. Quite a number enrolled their names and became active members of the Association by paying the fee of $1. Capt. Randell reported the proceedings of the Valdosta meeting and read the articles of association prescribed for the organization.

Perhaps the most important matter considered at this meeting was the building of a warehouse for the use of the planters in storing their cotton. A committee on warehouse was appointed consisting of Eugene S. Armstrong, chairman, J. A. Cottingham, C. B. Smith, Gibson Coffee and W. H. Toole, whose duty it will be to investigate the matter of building a warehouse, procure a lot therefor and devise the proper method to be pursued. Chairman Armstrong requests that the members of the committee meet on the first Saturday in January, and it is expected at this meeting a working program will be adopted. The committee is to report to the association at the next regular meeting which will be held Feb. 16th.

Farmers present pledged themselves to hold 28 bales of cotton for the price fixed by the association.

All farmers and others in sympathy with the movement who have not yet enrolled as members of the association are urgently requested to do so without delay. Those so desiring may enroll at any time by giving their names to J. H. Haven, Secretary, and paying the initiation fee of $1.00 prescribed by the rules.
